About Old House Ceremony Muhurat

The Old House Ceremony is performed when a family re-enters a previously occupied home after renovation, repairs, extended absence, or purification rituals. This ceremony helps remove lingering negative energies and restores balance, peace, and positivity within the house. Selecting an auspicious Muhurat ensures renewed harmony, safety, and well-being for the residents.

Important Guidance

Old House Ceremony Muhurat is determined based on planetary positions, Moon strength, Nakshatra, Tithi, and Vastu considerations. While the suggested Muhurat windows are astrologically favorable, completion of renovation work, cleanliness, and family traditions should also be respected. If timing changes are unavoidable, selecting the nearest auspicious Muhurat is recommended.

Why These Dates Are Recommended

- Auspicious Moon and Nakshatra combinations support purification and stability.
- Absence of inauspicious Tithis and planetary doshas during the selected periods.
- Planetary alignments that encourage peace, protection, and renewed positivity.

Precautions

- Perform the ceremony strictly within the recommended Muhurat window.
- Avoid Rahu Kaal, Yamagandam, Amavasya, and other inauspicious periods.
- If the preferred date is not feasible, consult for alternative auspicious timings.
